

Peter Casonato – Our Local Guide

Peter has lived in the area for his entire life and, after starting his working career as a carpenter, decided to change career paths to become a tour guide and operator. His passion for the area has resulted in being a multi-award winning business including 4 Western Australian Tourism Awards.

"I love the region, it's history and the multi-cultural influences that have developed the area to what it is today and nothing gives me more pleasure than to be given the opportunity to showcase these aspects to a greater audience."
